VETERANS' WEEK 2020

The Quebec branch has undertaken Veterans' Week in a different fashion this year. The sanitary rules have in fact limited the ceremonies of the Commemoration that we have enjoyed over the years.

Some have taken place by following local sanitary guidelines.

We also thanked our veteran volunteers who support our Branch with their knowledge and experience. Read the Media release here

The Branch is always proud to be associated with Legion Branch 265, one of the many branches of the Royal Canadian Legion, which allows us to keep a link with veterans and support them in their mission of helping veterans and serving members of the Canadian Armed Forces and the RCMP and their families, to promote remembrance, and to be of service to our communities and our country.

President's Message

Dear members,

As we inevitably enter the winter period, as we all live in our own way in uncertain times due to the COVID-19 pandemic, I am happy to greet you as a member of the NAFR and particularly of the Quebec Branch. It will not be easy as someone said ... First of all, I invite you to continue to follow the sanitary guidelines in this context of a pandemic. Let's remain optimistic and hope that we can resume our social life this spring.

Our volunteers have not been idle despite the confinement context, they have worked to provide you with information and to keep you entertained. The COVIDexit committee offered us a concert (a first on Zoom), conferences and now a most advantageous offer with " Les grands explorateurs " which offers us film conferences with a substantial discount for our members. The Communications Committee with the newsletter, Sage Inset, a veteran's week release, keeping the website updated. The recruiting committee has published ads in the newspapers and is preparing for deconfinement. Our social activities manager is biding his time and is just waiting to get going again.

We met with four MPs including the Minister of National Revenue, and we were instrumental in getting NAFR called as a witness during a hearing of the Standing Committee of the House of Commons on Veterans' Affairs. All this in order to protect the quality of retirement and the security of our members.

A big "Bravo Zulu" to our volunteers! A message conventionally used on board ships, where the flags hoisted together on a halyard mean "Congratulations, job well done".

We are looking for new volunteers to lend a hand to the team. It's empowering and we work with a smile. We are waiting for you.

In the latest member survey, 84% of respondents said they would like to be able to influence the direction of the Association. We have a good remedy for that! Painless!

Join the Quebec branch's Board of Directors. Here too, we work with a smile. We are standing by to prepare for an election this spring. You will only need to send your intention to the Election Officer. Details will follow soon.

Don't forget the ongoing recruitment campaign. Convince your colleagues to join our association. Go to the site of the Mega Recruitment Campaign, you have the chance to win many prizes: see the details here!

INDEXATION 2021

Finally, we received the indexation rate for the year 2021 which is 1%. To find out more, click here!

All members of the Board of Directors and I take this opportunity to wish you all, in this very unusual time, a happy holiday season and an extraordinary year 2021!

Advocacy for our members - Meeting with the Honourable Diane Lebouthillier

By Micheline Lefrançois, 1st Vice-President

The Quebec Branch is continuing to meet with Federal Members of Parliament of all parties on its territory as part of the NAFR's national Reach 338 project.

As you know, our primary mission is to advocate for our members and future members.

During the past few months, we have met with Mr. Gérard Deltell, Member of Parliament for Louis-Saint-Laurent and House Leader of the Conservative Party, and Mr. Alexis Brunelle-Duceppe, Member of Parliament for Lac-Saint-Jean of the Bloc Québécois. You have read our reports in the September newsletter. Read the September newsletter.

On November 10th, the Branch met with the Honourable Diane Lebouthillier, Member of Parliament for Gaspésie-Îles-de-la-Madeleine and Minister of National Revenue. We discussed the four NAFR's priorities: better retirement income security policies, a comprehensive national strategy for seniors, an improved policy framework for veterans, and universal Canadian Medicare.

In fact, Ms., Lebouthillier shared with us her 25 years as a social worker. She is also a caregiver to her parents. She therefore knows first-hand the needs and concerns of seniors and is sensitive to their claims.

It highlights government efforts to help seniors, including federal assistance for them in the form of a one-time payment for seniors eligible for the Old Age Security pension, as well as additional assistance for seniors eligible for the Guaranteed Income Supplement. This assistance to seniors allows them to help purchase essential goods and services during the pandemic.

As mentioned in the throne speech, this aid seeks to reduce the gaps in our social systems. For her, all seniors deserve to live in safety, with respect and with dignity.

Ms. Lebouthillier believes that we must go beyond temporary aid; old age pensions must be improved. The member for Gaspésie-Îles-de-la-Madeleine believes in the role of the NAFR in communicating to elected officials the needs of seniors and their families.

Income Security for Retirees and Future Retirees

The Branch noted that many federal retirees residing in regions like ours receive modest pension incomes. In the regions, unemployment among seasonal federal employees is opening a modest retirement income at retirement. The member is well aware of this situation; come retirement, seasonal workers tend to benefit from a modest pension income.

The Branch recalled that as federal retirees, we all remember the intention of Bill C-27 which would have allowed Crown and federally regulated corporations employers to convert defined benefit pension plans into pension plans with targeted benefits. Such a policy continues to worry us!

National Seniors Strategy

We also discussed the NAFR's priority in relation to a national strategy for seniors including several socio-economic components such as income security, housing, transportation and home care.

We referred to the Liberal platform indicating a target of "providing seniors with a more secure retirement", as well as the government's desire to have a senior minister in Cabinet. She emphasizes that this is a step in the right direction, while respecting provincial jurisdiction. This is an important issue that is on the agenda of the caucus and the federal Seniors Minister.

She also encourages us to discuss this issue with each level of government while respecting jurisdiction.

Veterans

Mrs. Lebouthillier welcomed our request to correct the discriminatory approaches suffered by veterans in the handling of their cases by Veterans Affairs, the "backlogs" in the treatment of veterans' cases, and the slower review process for francophone veterans' cases.

Message from Ms. Lebouthillier on tax credits for seniors

Honourable Lebouthillier would like our association to inform its members and their families of the importance of claiming and obtaining all the credits available and to which seniors may be entitled. Many seniors do not benefit from it due to a lack of resources to get help with the tax forms. For the member, it is important to convince our seniors to surround themselves with competent people who have the necessary information to complete their tax report by people or organizations who know this area well so that seniors receive the deductions to which they may have a right to.

She also took note of a suggestion to reimburse the cost of completing the tax return for low-income people.

In conclusion, our member of Parliament thanked the Branch for its dedication to defending the rights and interests of its members and future members.

Thank you very much, Ms. Lebouthillier!

Participating in this meeting for the Branch were:

René Grenier,
Micheline Lefrançois,
Roland Langevin,
Jean-Marc Demers,
Bruno Beaulieu, Board Member for Bas-Saint-Laurent-Gaspésie and Jean-Guy Chavarie, members of the Branch and a resident of the Riding of Gaspésie-Îles-de-la-Madeleine.

REPORT FROM SAGUENAY-LAC-SAINT-JEAN

By Ghislain Lavoie, administrator Saguenay-Lac-Saint-Jean

Hope for better days!

After the spring storm, when September arrived, we resumed our breakfasts at La Baie. We repeated in October. Now that our region is declared a red zone, we broke in November. Needless to say, our restaurant operator had taken all the necessary measures to protect us from COVID. Our fear was to insure not to ever have to resort to health care institutions!

On November 8th, I laid a wreath at Chicoutimi City Hall on your behalf to remember those who sacrificed their lives to ensure our quality of life. My heartfelt gratitude goes to those who gave their lives for us. Without forgetting those who came back with serious consequences to their health. Bravo!

On November 11th, a wreath was presented on our behalf at the Bagotville Base. They kept a minute of silence at eleven o'clock that day to thank all those who fought for a better life. In Arvida, everything had to be cancelled. We made a donation to the Arvida Legion Branch.

If it is allowed, we will resume our breakfasts at the Bay on the first Tuesday in December. I will notify people who ask, by sending an email.

For me, the best protection is the wearing of the mask when travelling inside and outside.

If you have federal retirees' friends who are not NAFR members, ask them to join our ranks. The more of us there are, the stronger we will be to advocate successfully and reach more gains.

Together, let's hope for better days for all of us.

Ghislain Lavoie member of the Branch Board. I am here to serve you!

REPORT FROM BAS-SAINT-LAURENT-GASPÉSIE

By Bruno Beaulieu, administrator of Bas-St-Laurent-Gaspésie

It was with great pleasure that I recently joined the Table de concertation des aînés of the Bas-Saint-Laurent (TCABSL) region.

"The mission of the Table de concertation is to improve the living conditions of all seniors in the Bas-Saint-Laurent by implementing measures to promote sharing, support and partnership. The TCABSL brings together some 100 associations of seniors and community organizations offering services to seniors. "

My participation in this table allows me to meet several community organizations that have the care of seniors at heart and to follow up on the Board of Directors of the Branch with the other colleagues who participate in the Tables de concertation des aînés in their region of the National Capital and Chaudière-Appalaches.

Sylvie Harrisson, Liaison Officer, Matane

On November 8th, Sylvie represented the Quebec Branch for the Remembrance Day ceremony which took place at the cenotaph near Jean-Charles Forbes Park in Matane.

Sylvie describes the event to us as follows: "About fifteen people participated in the event, respecting the distancing measures and wearing masks.

Veterans, cadets, politicians and a brave kilted trumpeter and bagpipe player set the mood for the event. Two speeches were brief, followed by the presentation of the wreaths. "

Thank you very much, Sylvie, for your involvement in the Quebec Branch.
