A Word from the President

Hello to all members,

It's always a pleasure to meet our members, this year in Chicoutimi and Matane. Our friend Ghislain Lavoie was reappointed for another term in the Saguenay region as administrator and liaison officer. On the executive front, we held a brainstorming day on June 7. We had to take stock of what we'd heard at our meetings, consult each other and, as far as our Branch is concerned, draw up an intermediate strategic plan, if such a thing exists: aligned with the Association and with our members.

Just the change of insurance showed us that while for many, the conversion went well, for others it wasn't obvious. This has created palpable pressures for us at branch level. We'll also need to recruit volunteers, but first of all, we need to organize ourselves to welcome them and make them feel productive.

I've just come back from the AMM in Gatineau, where, except for the first few words of welcome, everything was in English. Fortunately, we had translation with headphones. What I learned was that, as an association that defends the interests of our members, despite our outstanding reputation with the federal government, we still have a long way to go. We need to make an enthusiastic commitment to providing an equitable, diverse and inclusive environment for all our members. We may need to rethink the work of the branches, and at the national level, we may need to be more present on the public stage.

Our messages will have to be adapted to the new platforms, i.e., social media, if we want to be heard. If a message is worth a thousand words, now we say a video is worth a million, and stop scrolling to other articles. To grab attention and stay relevant in the eyes of the public, we need to "keep it simple" and publish fewer overly technical articles, be optimistic while keeping a fundamental message, as in TED talks. We remember stories, even if we forget the details. In a word, we have to go out and meet our audience.

Finally, congratulations to Jean-Marc Demers, who received one of the 60th Anniversary prizes awarded by the District of Quebec at the Théâtre du Casino de Gatineau, and to Guy Abel, who won the Best Sixties Costume award by acclamation Abel from the audience at the Annual Dinner. The story doesn't say whether he gets up at the crack of dawn like his father to deliver milk to the doors. I'll leave it to you to take a look at the photos below. We have quite a Finance Director!

Let's enjoy the summer!

A major statistical portrait of seniors, a first in Quebec

How many seniors are there in Quebec? Where do they live? How do they move? How much do they work? How do they spend their time? These are some of the questions you will find answers in the Portrait of seniors in Quebec produced by the Institut de la statistique du Québec, in partnership with the Secrétariat aux aînés. The publication contains a wealth of information on housing, means of transport, income, time use, health, consumption, lifestyle, communications, etc.

Aging and living together, at home: There is still time to participate in the broad public consultation

The Secrétariat aux aînés invites the public to participate in a broad public consultation, conducted as part of the work that will lead to the development of the third action plan resulting from the Government Policy Aging and Living Together, at Home, in Your Community, in Quebec, for the period 2024-2029. This online consultation gives Quebec citizens the opportunity to share their views on topics affecting their aging or that of their loved ones.

Good News for Women Veterans

Adoption of the name "Veteran" by the ACVA Committee and Veterans Affairs Canada

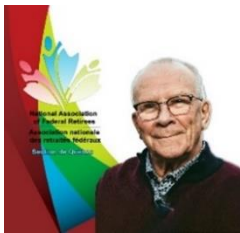

Finally, the Government is replacing the term "female veteran" with "veteran."

Following requests from several Veterans, the ACVA Committee recently changed the name of its ongoing study on "The Live Experience of Women Veterans" to "The Live Experience of Veteran Women". Best of all, the Minister of Veterans Affairs has committed to making changes within his department.

The term "female veteran" was seen as a lack of recognition for women who served.

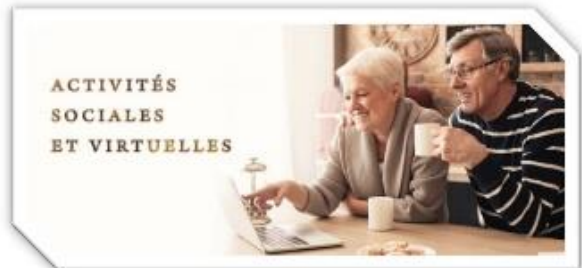

To view the segment, click here: <https://youtu.be/w26ycYfzI4A>.

We ask that the term "veteran" be adopted by the Department of National Defence, the Canadian Armed Forces and any other department or agency of the Canadian government.
